COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

38. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained herein.
39. This action is properly maintainable as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
40. This action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff and a class consisting of similarly situated employees who work or have worked for Defendants.
41. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and the other FLSA collective action Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated have sustained similar job requirements and pay provisions, are and have been subject to Defendants' decisions, policies, plans and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines, and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them overtime pay at a rate of one and one-half (1.5) times their regular hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

42. Upon information and belief, there are current and former employees who are similarly situated to Plaintiff, who have been underpaid in violation of the FLSA. The named Plaintiff is representative of those other workers and is acting on behalf of Defendants' current and former employees' interests, as well as their own interest in bringing this action.

43. Plaintiff seeks to proceed as a collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) on behalf of themselves and all similarly situated persons who work or have worked for Defendants at any time during the six (6) years prior to the filing of their respective consent forms.

44. Plaintiff and potential Plaintiffs who elect to opt-in as part of the collective action are all victims of the Defendants' common policies and/or plans to violate the FLSA by failing to provide overtime wages, at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay, for all time worked in excess of 40 hours in any given week pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 207.

FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE RULE 23

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

45. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained herein.

46. Plaintiff also brings his NYLL claims on behalf of himself and a class of persons under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Rule 23 Class") comprised of all persons who work or have worked for Defendants in the State of New York at any time from the six (6) years prior to the filing of this Complaint to the entry of judgment in this case.

47. The persons in the Rule 23 Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

48. The persons in the Rule 23 Class are readily ascertainable. The names and addresses of such persons are readily available from Defendants for purposes of notice and any other purpose related to this action.

49. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Rule 23 Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Rule 23 Class as a whole.

50. The questions of law and fact common to the Rule 23 Class that predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the Rule 23 Class include, but are not limited to:

- a) Whether Defendants unlawfully failed to properly compensate Plaintiff in violation of and within the meaning of New York Labor Law Article 6, §190 et seq. and the supporting New York State Department of Labor Regulations, 12 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 142;

- b) Whether Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class are “non-exempt” from entitlement to overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week;
- c) What policies, practices and procedures Defendants implemented regarding payment of overtime compensation, minimum wage, spread of hours breaks and meal periods;
- d) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week within the meaning of the NYLL Article 19 § 650 et seq. and the supporting NYDOL Regs., 12 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 142;
- e) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class spread of hours pay by failing to pay an additional hour’s pay when they worked more than ten (10) hours in a day, as provided by 12 N.Y.C.R.R. sect. 142-2.4;
- f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class breaks and meal periods in violation of NYLL § 162(4);
- g) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a notice of his pay rates;
- h) Whether Defendants wrongfully interfered with the rights of Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class to immediate possession of earned wages and, thus, engaged in unlawful conversion of their compensation;

- i) The nature and extent of the Rule 23 Class-wide injury and the appropriate measure of damages for the Class; and
- j) Whether Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week, spread of hours pay was done willfully or with reckless disregard for the applicable federal and state wage and hours laws, and whether Defendants' failure to provide proper meal and break period was done willfully or with reckless disregard for the applicable federal and state wage and hours laws.

51. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Rule 23 Class he seeks to represent. Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class work, or have worked, for Defendants in non-exempt positions and have had their rights to immediate possession to their wages wrongfully interfered with by Defendants, have not been paid overtime compensation or spread of hours pay, have not been afforded proper breaks and meal periods. Defendants have acted and have refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Rule 23 class, thereby making declaratory relief with respect to the Rule 23 class appropriate.

52. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims, which could be alleged by any member of the Rule 23 class, and the relief sought is typical of the relief, which would be sought by each member of the Class in separate actions. All Class members were subject to the same corporate practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, of wrongful conversion of earned compensation, failing to pay overtime compensation, failing to provide spread of hours pay and failing to afford proper break and meal periods.

53. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Rule 23 Class.

54. Plaintiff has retained counsel competent and experienced in both complex class actions and in labor and employment litigation.

55. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation, particularly in the context of a wage and hour litigation like the present action, where individual Plaintiff may lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently and without the necessary duplication of efforts and expense that numerous individual actions beget. The adjudication of individual claims would result in a great expenditure of Court and public resources; conversely, treating the claims would result in significant costs savings. The members of the Rule 23 Class have been damaged and are entitled to recovery as a result of Defendants' policies, practices and procedures. Although the relative damages suffered by the individual members of the Rule 23 Class are not de minimus, such damages are small compared to the expense and burden of individual prosecution of this litigation. In addition, class treatment is superior because it will obviate the need for unduly duplicative litigation that might result in inconsistent judgments about Defendants' practices.

56. Current employees are often hesitant to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are reluctant to bring claims because doing so can harm their present and future employment and further efforts to obtain employment. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the Complaint a degree of anonymity which allows for the vindication of their rights while eliminating or reducing risks.
